GUIDELINES FOR PARENT VOLUNTEERS

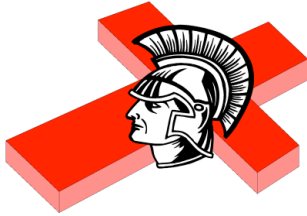

We want to thank each of you for your willingness to serve. Your help in the classrooms, on the playground, in the office, and around the campus is greatly appreciated. The Lord bless you and your time here among staff and students. To ensure that this time is truly a blessing to all, we have listed a few guidelines for you. Please take the time to read the following:

- Work out a schedule that is convenient for you, the teacher, office personnel, or playground supervisors.
- Please do not bring siblings with you as you serve.
- Please arrive on time on the day you are scheduled to help. Call ahead of time if there is a change of plans.
- When you arrive for service, please sign in at the front office, pick up a name tag, and report in with staff member you are working with.
- All classroom policies and procedures are set by the teacher or administration; Please respect the teacher's authority and discipline program. All evaluation of a student's performance, academic or behavioral, is the teacher's job.
- Please respect confidential matters, such as grades, scores, and upcoming tests, or other issues you may overhear.
- Please maintain a positive and loving attitude toward students and staff members. Please be encouraging, gracious, merciful, and edifying.
- Remember: You are a role model to the students. Modest clothing in keeping with the handbook is expected, and no smoking or use of inappropriate language while on campus.

Again, thank you for your servant heart. In every situation, in every circumstance, use common sense and a Christian model. Ask yourself "what would Jesus do?"
